

INSURE YOUR FUTURE

with a degree from Santa Fe College

The insurance profession may be one of the best-kept secrets in employment, offering enormous potential for immediate hire upon graduation and future promotion. Not much happens in global commerce without insurance. That means property and casualty markets will continue to grow and thrive, and insurance companies will always need to hire more qualified people.

Average salary: $57,000 - $66,000

See back for salary breakdown.

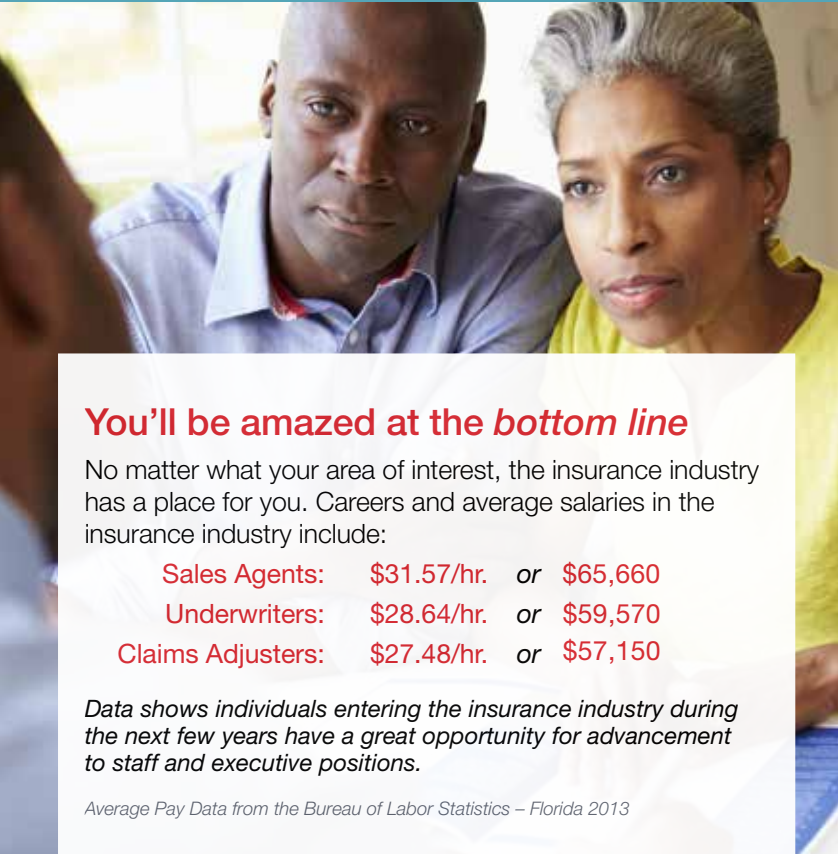

ESTIMATES SHOW the insurance industry will need to hire roughly 400,000 employees nationwide BEFORE 2020.

PROPERTY AND CASUALTY INSURANCE – insurance coverage purchased by homeowners, car owners and business owners to protect against fire, collision, theft or accidental injury.

Insurance careers cover a wide array of specialty areas such as

Accounting | Claims | Finance | Human Resources | Information Systems | Marketing

You'll be amazed at the *bottom line

No matter what your area of interest, the insurance industry has a place for you. Careers and average salaries in the insurance industry include:

- Sales Agents: $31.57/hr. or $65,660
- Underwriters: $28.64/hr. or $59,570
- Claims Adjusters: $27.48/hr. or $57,150

Data shows individuals entering the insurance industry during the next few years have a great opportunity for advancement to staff and executive positions.

Average Pay Data from the Bureau of Labor Statistics – Florida 2013

We've got you covered

Insurance and Risk Management

Associate of Science Degree (A.S.)

The Insurance and Risk Management program at Santa Fe College prepares you for a career in the personal or commercial property and casualty insurance industry with an A.S degree in just two years.

Ready to lock in?

Talk to an advisor in the SF Business Programs. They can tell you what education is necessary and which programs will help you reach your goals.

douglas.robertson@sfcollge.edu
(352) 395-5139, Building C-102

catherine.lawton@sfcollge.edu
(352) 395-5136, Building C-106

www.sfcollge.edu/business