The Office Specialist certificate is an 18 credit hour program in office operations and procedures. Positions available to program graduates might include word processor, clerk, and general office worker, among others. All courses in this certificate program apply towards the AS degree in Office Administration. The sample sequence should be followed closely by students; some adjustments may need to be made due to reduced summer offerings or other circumstances. Contact a Business Advisor via douglas.robertson@sfcollge.edu or catherine.lawton@sfcollge.edu.

The College Placement Test (PERT) is NOT required for this program, but is required for other certificates and degrees.
