

Students who take these high school courses	And earn	Can receive college credit for	In these SF programs
8201210 Digital Media/Multimedia Design 1 OR 8201220 Digital Media/Multimedia Design 2 OR 8201230 Digital Media/Multimedia Design 3	"B" or above in the high school class and 80% in a Career Pathways exam OR pass Adobe Certified Expert (ACE) in Photoshop	GRA 1150C Raster Graphics	Graphic Design Technology A.S. Digital Media Technology A.S.
8201220 Digital Media/Multimedia Design 2 OR 8201230 Digital Media/Multimedia Design 3 OR 8201240 Digital Media/Multimedia Design 4	B" or above in the high school class, ACA certification in Illustrator and 80% in 30 hours of training through the Career Pathways Digital Media Institute at SF Campus* OR pass Adobe Certified Expert (ACE) in Illustrator	GRA 2100C Computer Graphics for Artists and Designers	(these A.S. degrees are a part of the B.A.S. in Multimedia and Video Production Technology at SF)

*The Digital Media Institute is a free, 5-day, intensive training experience in graphic design and Adobe InDesign or Illustrator, which takes place in June at the SF Northwest Campus.

 Non-transferable occupational courses that are part of the A.S. and B.A.S. Graphic Design and Digital Media programs at SF.