

Santa Fe College Rules Manual

Title: Credit by Examination Rule 4.5

General Authority: FS 1001.64(4)(8)

Law Implemented: FS 1007.22, 1007.27, 1007.235; 6A-10.024, 6A-14.031, FAC

Effective Date: October 21, 1982

Purpose: To provide for credit by examination.

College Level Examination Program (CLEP)

Requirements for credit in certain courses may be satisfied by achieving required scores as determined by the Department of Education on CLEP examinations. A list of available CLEP exams and information concerning required scores shall be made available at the Office of the Registrar.

Program Area Exams

Program area exams may be offered for credit in certain courses designated by the program director or chairperson.

If a CLEP exam is available for any course, the student may not apply for a program-made exam for credit.

The program director or chairperson shall have the discretion as to whether to offer credit by exam if CLEP is not available.
