Chapter 101 – Student Government Code of Ethics

- 101.01 This shall be known and may be cited as the Student Government Code of Ethics.
- 101.02 Legislative intent and declaration of policy:
1. It is essential to the proper conduct and operation of Student Government that its officials be independent and impartial. Student Government officers hold their positions for the benefit of the Student Body. Such officers are bound to observe in their official acts, the highest standards of ethics consistent with this code.
  2. It is the intent of this act to protect the integrity of Student Government by prescribing restrictions against conflicts of interest and unethical practices.
- 101.03 Standards of Conduct
- 101.031 Conflict of interest: No officers of Student Government shall participate in any private business or professional activity or have any direct or indirect financial interest which would place that person in a position where there is a conflict between that private interest and the best interests of the Student Body.
- 101.032 Misuse of Student Government Property: No officer shall use or allow the use of Student Government property, facilities, or personnel of any kind for other than official approved Student Government business.
- 101.033 Unlawful compensation or regard for official behavior: No person shall corruptly give, offer, or promise to any Student Government officer or agree to accept, any pecuniary or other benefit not authorized by Student Body Law, for the past, present, or future performance or nonperformance of any act which the person believes to have been, or the officer, or represents as have been, within the official capacity of the officer.
- 101.034 Intentional Wrongful Harm: No officer of Student Government shall intentionally and wrongfully harm or threaten to intentionally and wrongfully harm any person by the performance or omission of any act.
- 101.035 Inducing to Act: No officer of Student Government shall aid, advisee, procure, or in any way induce another to act in violation of this chapter.
- 101.036 Intentionally Circumventing Due Process: No officer or employee of Student Government shall intentionally circumvent the due process of any trial procedure or in any way induce another to act in this manner.
- 101.04 Penalties: A violation under this chapter may be cause for impeachment, suspension, or removal from office, suspension or dismissal from employment or public censure and reprimand by any individual or body having lawful authority to take such action.
- 101.05 To serve as guardian of the standards of conduct for the officers of Student Government, the Supreme Court shall follow procedure pursuant to Section 101.63.

- 101.06 Procedures
- 101.061 Upon a written complaint of any student, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court or their designee shall make a preliminary investigation into any alleged violation of this chapter.
- 101.062 Upon a showing of probable cause to believe that a violation of this chapter has been or is being committed, the Chief Justice, or designee by the Student Senate in case of the investigation of the Chief Justice, shall convene the Supreme Court to hear evidence and argument on said violation and all related violations.
- 101.063 The Court may use the subpoena power of the Supreme Court to obtain evidence and testimony under oath. The judicial officer who convened the Court shall preside over it and sign all subpoenas. If an At-Large or Academic Senator is subpoenaed by the Court and refuses to go before the Court, they will be removed from their position in Student Senate. If the Court subpoenas a club or club member and the club or club member refuses to go before the Court, then all funding from Student Government will be suspended until subpoenaed member/members appears before the Court. If a Leadership Team member or Director is subpoenaed by the Court and refuses to go before the Court, then they will be removed from their position in Student Government. The judicial officer shall direct the investigation of the Court, question witnesses before it, and shall be its legal advisor.
- 101.064 Upon the conclusion of its investigation, the Court, with the assistance of the Chief Justice, shall present its findings and conclusions in a written report which must be approved by all members of the Court. The approved report shall be submitted to the presiding officer for review, and then to all individuals accused of violations in the report.
- 101.065 Investigations under this chapter shall remain confidential until the final approved report is reviewed by the presiding officer and any appeals have been exhausted. At such time, copies of the approved report shall be submitted to the President of the Student Body, heads of the Student Senate, and the Supreme Court.
- 101.066 Violation of the confidentiality of the Court's proceedings, perjury before the Court, and the filing of complaints without reasonable basis and with malicious intent shall be violations of this chapter and subject to the penalties contained herein.
- 101.067 In all cases pertaining to slander or libel, the burden of proof shall rest with the petitioners who bring the charges against the defendant. In cases that involve a public official(s), the burden of proof shall be when malice is clearly present, based on a preponderance of the evidence.

- 600.220 A mandatory Candidate Information Session shall be set for some time at the Elections Commission's choosing following the due date for applications and prior to the start of the campaigning period.
- 600.221 If a candidate cannot make it to the Candidate Information Session for a legitimate excuse such as conflicting class schedule, conflicting work schedule, or other reason excused by the head of the Elections Commission, said candidate cannot campaign until a makeup session is held for them.
- 600.222 The deadline for paperwork shall not be extended.

Section 3: Chapter 601 – Election Rules and Campaigning Guidelines

- 601.100 In order for Elections to continue in a smooth and orderly fashion, guidelines and punishments shall be established to this end.
- 601.101 The Elections Commission must make all rules and information regarding elections available to all candidates and parties one week prior to the start of campaigning.
- 601.110.1 Campaigning shall be prohibited in the following places:
1. Inside all classrooms and academic buildings;
  2. Inside all administrative buildings of Santa Fe College;
  3. Inside the Library, Big Open Lab, and all other computer labs and within 50 feet thereof;
  4. On vehicles unless written permission is granted.
  5. Within 50 feet of all polling locations; and,
  6. Within the entirety of the S-building and during Student Senate while in session.
- 601.111 Campaigning within the Student Government Suite and Senate is further defined wearing any partisan materials such as shirts, stickers, and buttons, actively promoting any partisan cause.
- 601.120 No Student Government resources or Activity and Service (A&S) fees may be used for partisan uses.
- 601.130 A polling location shall be designated as a specially created location that exists only for the duration the polling as set out in the SFS 600.110 where multiple access points to the voting platform exist.
- 601.131 All polling locations, on or off campus, that are created without the authorization of the Elections Commission shall be illegal. All parties responsible for the creation and administration of these unauthorized polling locations shall be barred from further campaigning.
- 601.140.1 For matters of safety, campaign material may not be placed in the following locations:
1. Ladders extending higher than eight feet;
  2. On the roof of any building;
  3. Under awnings, bridges, or any other location that would provide shelter when it rains;
  4. Anywhere that entrances or exits are blocked; and,
  5. On the ground where people walk. Exemption to this rule shall be granted in 601.142.

- 601.141 Exemption to SFS 601.140 (d) shall exist solely for chalking sidewalks on campus. Chalking may only occur on open sidewalks not under any awning, trees, or any other part of a building.
- 601.142 Signage locations must be either pre approved by the Elections Commission or be approved by the Elections Commission on petition of a party or candidate.
- 601.150 Campaigning shall only occur during the set campaigning dates provided in SFS 600.110 and approved by the Senate. Any campaigning outside of these dates shall be considered a violation of the rules and may be punished by the Elections Commission.
- 601.151 The filing of paperwork, financial and contractual arrangements, and other preparation work shall not be considered campaigning in so far that it does not actively promote a candidate, cause, or party.
- 601.160.1 For reasons of safety, the following types of campaign material shall not be permitted:
1. Any freestanding signage exceeding 5 feet by 3 feet; and,
  2. Food that has not been prepared in a certified kitchen.
- 601.170 All parties and candidates must clean up and remove any and all campaign materials by the Friday immediately following elections.
- 601.180 The Elections Commission may, upon a majority vote, impose other restrictions on candidates and shall only be valid for the current elections cycle.
- 601.200 The Elections Commission shall establish guidelines one month prior to the beginning of the Campaign period outlining punishments for infractions of these rules.
- 601.210 The Elections Commission may impose the following penalties upon candidates and parties as it sees fit:
1. Warnings;
  2. Loss of privileges; and,
  3. Complete disqualification from elections.
- 601.211 If a candidate is disqualified from the election, their name shall be removed from the ballot. If a party is found to be in breach of the rules to an extent severe enough that the Elections Commission merits complete disqualification of the entire party, all candidates under the party shall be removed from the ballot.
- 601.212 In the case that an entire party is disqualified, individual candidates may appeal for their name to still appear on the ballot as an independent candidate if there are circumstances that might still make them eligible.
- 601.220 The decisions of the Elections Commission relating to matters of a political party or candidate may only be overturned by an appeal to the Supreme Court.

- 601.230 The Elections Commission is not required to place physical indicators of the rules, such as indicating the 50-foot minimum distance from a restricted area, or verbally indicate to a candidate or party that they are in violation. The party and candidates shall police themselves as a first-line of regulation.
- 601.300 In extraordinary circumstances, any ruling of the Supreme Court, Elections Commission, or Senate may be overturned without question by the Student Government Advisor or those superior to the Advisor solely for infractions of College Rules, Local, State, or Federal Law.

Chapter 602 – Elections Procedure Guidelines on Procedures and Requirements of the Elections Commission

- 602.100 Candidates may submit applications to take part in elections as independent candidates or as part of a political party.
- 602.101 Candidates running for Student Body President and the Student Body Vice President must run on a joint ticket, with one candidate for each position per ticket.
- 602.110 All deadlines for elections related matters must be made known at least 5 calendar days in advance and must be advertised on all appropriate mediums. Appropriate mediums, at a minimum must include the application/paperwork itself and the Student Government Website. All deadlines properly set by the Elections Commission are immovable and cannot be abrogated.
- 602.111 Ignorance of deadlines may not be used as an excuse for late submission. Only if the conditions listed in SFS 602.110 are not met may a reasonable extension be granted.
- 602.200 All official Elections Commission meetings shall be made known to the public at least five business days in advance with notices placed in the Student Government Suite and on the Student Government Website
- 602.210 If the Elections Commission is to conduct a hearing to review violations, at least 24 hours' notice must be served to both the supposed violator and the individual who submitted the complaint.
- 602.300 Applications shall not change once they go out unless a significant error or drastic change in rules develops.
- 602.301 If applications do change, all old applications received shall be allowed to be submitted and be received without issue. Any additional information needed that was included on the new application but was lacking on the old application shall be granted an appropriate amount of time to submit the information. This shall be granted administratively by the head of the Elections Commission.
- 602.400 Election violation complaint forms shall be distributed one week prior to the beginning of the campaigning and be removed the day after the last day of elections. Complaints received after the forms have been removed shall not be heard.

- 602.500 Elections must be ratified by a majority of Senate no later than the second meeting following the conclusion of elections.
- 602.501 If there are still outstanding violation complaints, Senate may ratify the results in the first meeting following the conclusion of elections. If there are still outstanding violation complaints, the results may be read to the Senate, however no ratification action may be taken by Senate until the final complaint has been heard and all appeals have been decided.
- 602.510 Swearing in of all election winners shall take place on the third Senate in April. This shall constitute the beginning of their annual term.
- 602.511 Outgoing Senators shall remain in office until the new Senators have been sworn in.
- 602.512 All Leadership Team members shall have their Student Government positions end at 4:00 PM on the day of the swearing in as defined by SFS 602.510.
- 602.600 All locations and resources available to candidates and parties shall be available on a “first-come, first serve” basis.
- 602.610 The Elections Commission will ensure that all Satellite Campus shall have equal access and opportunity to participate in Student Government Elections and activities thereof. All incentives given by the Elections Commission for Students to vote shall be given equally to all campuses.
